Finding Hunter College's Electronic Resources from Google Scholar

You can search for scholarly literature, including peer-reviewed papers, theses, books, preprints, abstracts and technical reports from Google Scholar and see what is available at Hunter College. The links "fulltext at Hunter" or "related info at Hunter" links appear automatically in your Google Scholar results list if working on campus. From off-campus click on Scholar Preferences, add "Hunter College" to the Institutional Access search box and save your preferences to see what is available from Hunter College.

Note: Google Scholar does not always accurately reflect all of Hunter College's full text holdings. Always check CUNY+ or electronic journals links from Hunter College Libraries' web site to ascertain an item's availability.

Have Suggestions/Comments?

If you have a comment, complaint, or compliment for the library, please let us know by via phone, email, or the "Suggestion Box" located at the Library. Thanks!

New & Noteworthy Book Features –

Dying To Be Beautiful:
The Fight for Safe Cosmetics/ Kay,
Gwen. The Ohio State University, 2005. KF 3896
.K39 2005.

A 2005 AJN Book of the Year award, this is a fascinating account the experiences, perseverance, and brilliance of the women and grassroots activists who fought for legislation to regulate cosmetics in the early 20th century. It also examines the FDA's role in regulating cosmetics.

Encyclopedia of Nursing
Research 2nd Ed./ Joyce J. Fitzpatrick.
Springer Publishing Company,2006. RT 81.5 E53
2006.

Text includes 320 articles by 200 expert contributors on topics such as nursing services, education, care, specialties, organizations and publications, cancer survivorship, middle range theories, taxonomy, HIV risk behavior, depression in cardiac disease, and more. By a Brandon/Hill Nursing List author.

Street Science: Community Knowledge and Environment Health Justice/ Corburn,
Jason. Massachusetts Institute of Technology,
2005. RA 565 .C67 2005.

The author traces the efforts of a low-income Greenpoint/Williamsburg neighborhood of Brooklyn in four instances where community members and professionals combined forces to address the risks from subsistence fishing from the polluted East River, the asthma epidemic in the Latino community, childhood lead poisoning, and local sources of air pollution. These episodes highlight both the successes and the limits of “street science” and demonstrate ways residents can establish their own credibility when working with scientists.

Teaching in Nursing: A Guide for Faculty 2nd Ed./Diane M. Billings. Elsevier Saunders, 2005. RT 71 T336 2005.

Winner of the AJN Book of the Year award, this book covers teaching, curriculum, and evaluation with tools for curriculum and evaluation of students. Features a new chapter on the utilization of web-based courses and courseware and strategies for promoting critical thinking and active learning.
